DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-14 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-25 of copending Application No. 09/993,708. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-14 of the instant application are similar in scope to the claims of Application No. 09/993,708 with obvious wording variation.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter.

For example, copending application teaches an interface unit for a main unit which connects a key telephony for determining the communication scheme the key telephony is compatible with, selects based upon the determination first transmission scheme when key telephony is only compatible with first scheme, and select second transmission scheme when key telephony is compatible to either first or second schemes (i.e. first or second rate).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

---(5,349,635 A) Scott teaches interface that determines identity of device so that transmission schemes. As a result, no customer intervention is required to determine transmission schemes thus allowing customer(s) with the ability to upgrade to newer transmission scheme.
